VINEYARD NOTES

Planted: 2013
Elevation: 453 feet
Varietals: Pinot Meunier, Pinot Noir (Clones Dijon 777, 667 and 115)

Tucked away at the corner of the Estate, High Acres is the youngest vineyard at Left Coast and the only to contain volcanic soils. During the great Missoula floods tremendous floodwaters inundated the Willamette Valley and brought the river level over the 400 feet elevation mark. High Acres would have been a small island in the center of the valley.
